

SU Needle Choice for the Morris Z

Charles Walklate

As late as 1960 it was reported that experiments with SU carburettors fitted to Series Z vans showed that the MO sized needle gave more miles per gallon than the manufacturer's standard HE needle and as a result, all Z's were fitted with MO needles. This is an interesting piece of information supplied by Post Office Vehicle Club. Hope it is of interest to you all.