

In this 1938 photograph of one of the three Machine Rooms, W Ansell is shown in the foreground with F Loveridge assisting at the back.

Operating the feeder-stitcher machines, c1938. The sheets and covers were wire stitched at a rate in excess of 3000 complete magazines per hour. Left to right: Edna Hartley, Dot Brown, Gladys Johnson, —.